Description of the role of the High School Dance Teacher:

Teacher means a person employed permanently, temporarily or casually in a teaching position under the provisions of the Teaching Service Act 1980.

Teachers require a capacity to integrate technology in teaching and learning programs. Teachers are required to have highly developed communication and interpersonal skills and the capacity to work collaboratively with students, staff and parents. Teachers should have the ability to translate the understanding of the Quality Teaching Framework in outstanding classroom practice and knowledge of and commitment to the policies and approaches applicable to the individual school community, e.g. Aboriginal community, collaborative learning partnerships, gifted and talented, student welfare, girls and boys' education, the performing arts and vocational education.

High school dance teachers instruct students in Years 7 – 12 in dance techniques and styles to learn professional dance performance skills. They may explain and demonstrate techniques and methods of regulating movements of body to musical or rhythmic accompaniment, and drill students in execution of dance steps. They may choreograph and direct dance performance. High school dance teachers may teach history of dance in theory classes.

This document indicates the average time spent across a working day on common work activities/physical work demands that have been identified as essential to the successful performance of the role. The frequency of performance of work tasks is described by either the Descriptor, Percentage of Time, or Amount of Time based on the average working day of 7 hours as follows:

Descriptor	Percentage of Time	Amount of Time based on 7 hours per day
Not present	0%	0
Rare	1% - 7%	From 4 mins to 30 mins
Occasional	8% - 33%	35 mins to 2 ¼ hours
Frequent	34% - 66%	2 ½ hours to 4 ½ hours
Constant	67% - 100%	4 ¾ hours to 7 hours

Hours of Work and Scheduled Breaks

Hours of Work: Employees work during the normal daily hours of operation of the school during which classes are conducted; this is commonly Monday to Friday. Generally teaching employees may be required to be present half an hour before school starts and half an hour after the dismissal in the afternoon. Where special circumstances arise which, in the interests of the school necessitate attendance beyond these hours, the attendance of the employees may be required.

Meal Breaks: Employees are entitled to a lunch break of not less than 30 minutes.

Non- Teaching Time: High school teachers weekly timetable includes both face to face teaching periods and non teaching periods. During the non teaching periods, time is spent on session planning, completion of administrative paperwork, correction of students' work, reports, class preparation (e.g. photocopying, resource preparation) review of resources, purchasing of supplies, checking and responding to messages etc. It should be noted that teachers may also undertake these and other related tasks outside of the school's operating hours.

Job Profile – Functional Summary For the Position of a High School Dance Teacher

Environmental Factors

The following environmental factors exist in the workplace.

Low to moderate-level ambient noise (from students, music etc.) requiring considerable voice projection to be heard.

Noises may be distracting or uncomfortable.

Worker/ team relationships – the work environment may require the employee to adjust to and manage different working styles, and demonstrate an ability to work cooperatively.

Shortened work breaks may be taken on a voluntary basis.

While deadlines exist for many tasks, the level of demand is dependent upon the school environment and staffing level. Teachers may also be required to address multiple demands and a large number of un planned interruptions may occur throughout the working day.

Core Workplace Expectations (Organisational, Interpersonal, and Psychosocial).

The following major workplace expectations have been identified with reference to DEC Policies and Guidelines, the NSW Institute of Teachers website and O*NET (the Occupational Information Network, a comprehensive database of worker attributes and job characteristics).

All employees have a responsibility to comply with legislation, departmental policy, procedures and the DEC Code of Conduct, perform their duties effectively, provide impartial and accurate advice and act in a manner that promotes a productive and harmonious working environment.

Negotiating with others - In dealing with other people, employees should be able to accommodate and tolerate different opinions and perspectives, and sort out their disagreements by rational discussion.

Departmental employees have a duty to take reasonable care for the safety and welfare of the students in their charge.

Establishing and maintaining effective communication – includes appropriate communication with supervisors, peers, subordinates, students, parents and community members

Employees who work with students have a special responsibility in presenting themselves as appropriate role models for those students.

Training and Teaching Others – Includes identifying the educational needs of others, developing formal educational or training programs or classes, and teaching or instructing ,and assessing and reporting for effective learning

Teachers create and maintain safe and challenging learning environments through the use of classroom management skills. Effective strategies for the management of student behaviour and the maintenance of a safe working and learning environment include WHS procedures, student welfare procedures, curriculum and environmental management.

Investigations – participate in reporting investigation and resolution processes, including mandatory reporting of suspected child abuse or neglect, and participation as a witness or party to performance, discipline, grievance, WorkCover or other processes.

The use of this terminology, referred to in Frequency of Physical Job demands table on page 2, helps to establish a common language for key stakeholders when describing job demands in terms of frequency of activity performance, type of posture or movement and the level of strength/ lifting required.

Definition of Physical Job Demands
