Description

Student Status is a term used in both the Outcomes and Focus Area report (particularly in the pie chart), and the Outcomes Across Schools report. These categories are a summary of a student's progress across each of the three domains Reading, Writing and Numeracy, with the following labels used:

- All Achieved or Exempt – students who have achieved all three minimum standard tests, or are exempt
- Some Achieved or Exempt – students who have achieved, or are exempt from, one or two of the minimum standard tests
- None Achieved – students who have not sat any tests, are new to DoE, or are yet to achieve the minimum standard for all three domains

The Student Status Detailed report shows status information at the domain level, allowing users to see how a student has been given a particular Student Status overall.

The slicers in Step 2 are optional and allow you to select a subset of students. For both steps, the report will automatically update to show results for your selections only.

Note: If you do not make a selection, the report will display ALL results available to you.

It is recommended that you make a selection in both of these steps so that the table will contain a more manageable amount of information than all items for all students.

Clicking on the header of each column will sort the data in the table into ascending or descending order:
