

Official Enrolment Census

The Official Enrolment Census report provides a high level view of a school enrolment numbers across the years.

For executive directors and directors of public schools, the report provides the same facility but for all schools within their Principal Network.

How will this report benefit me?

The Official Enrolment Census report can be used to gain an insight on the trends and any significant shifts in student movements at your school or in your area. It also provides enrolment information for Intensive English Centres and/or any support units at your school, such as Autism and Physical Disability.

What does the Official Enrolment Census report provide?

This one page report presents information on:

Enrolment Numbers by Scholastic Year

- This column chart displays enrolment numbers at a school by scholastic and calendar year. For each scholastic year, e.g. Year 7, the number of students in each of the last six calendar years is shown.

Use the following slicers to filter and analyse the data:

- School Type
- Gender
- Aboriginality
- Delivery Method Name

Enrolment Type

This slicer provides information on special enrolment types, for example Intensive English, Disability, Opportunity Class, etc. As this field is optional for schools, many schools will not have any data when this slicer is selected. The same category may be used in different ways by different schools to support their data collection.

How can I use the Official Enrolment Census report to support my school self assessment?

Schools can use this report to monitor enrolment trends at their school. This will allow them to plan for expected changes in their enrolments in future.

Schools can also use this report to support their data collection strategies by comparing official ERN enrolment numbers with enrolment numbers held in other sources.

What should I look for?

- The chart provides information on the enrolment trends at your school throughout the last six years.

Where does this data come from?

ERN

How frequently is data updated?
