

Respect

A term used to refer to the way individuals treat each other. Showing respect occurs in many ways, such as waiting to speak, listening and demonstrating understanding, not asking too many direct questions, ensuring that people are not made to feel uncomfortable or uneasy, and generally showing regard for others' ideas, beliefs and culture.

Dance classroom

Personal space

Engaged audience

Valuing opinions

Working safely and respectfully in dance

Culture

Consent

Body awareness

Appropriate interactions

NSW Department of Education resources to help plan, program and assess creative arts K-12