

Let's go to school

Starting school is a big change for your child and family, and a good start will help set your child up for long-term success.

Talk to your early childhood education and care service today about how you can work together to connect with your child's school and to give them the best start to Kindergarten.

Visit our website to learn more about what else you can do to support your child to have a successful transition to school.