

 Education
Register of Gifts and Benefits
Date Received	Name and Position of Recipient	Name of Donor	Description of gift/benefit	Estimated Value $	Reasons for Acceptance	Decision on what will happen to gift/benefit	Name and Position of Approving Officer
December 2019 Quarter Update
NOTE: All gifts received by the Secretary are held in the Director, Audit's office and auctioned annually with all proceeds going to Stewart House.
19/Nov/19	Leslie Loble, Deputy Secretary, Education Futures and Governance	Minter Ellison Lawyers	Dinner at Farrer Place Sydney	$60.00	Theme of the dinner was 'Women in Government'. Appropriate for the Department to be represented at the dinner. Engaging and networking with peers. Elizabeth Koff (Secretary NSW Health) was the speaker.	Accepted	Mark Scott, Secretary
September 2019 Quarter Update
NOTE: All gifts received by the Secretary are held in the Director, Audit's office and auctioned annually with all proceeds going to Stewart House.
24/Jul/19	Sally Webster, Director, School and Business Systems	Teachers Mutual Bank	Guest of TMB at the Business Council for Co-operatives & Mutuals Resilience Dinner hosted at NSW Parliament House	$100.00	It forms part of the ongoing relationship building with the Department's long term banking provider to NSW Teacher's and support staff to Teacher's. This was also a networking opportunity to develop a new business engagement with other BCCM members. The topic of the dinner was regarding resilience which is applicable to work occurring across the Department.	Accepted	Chloe Read, Executive Director, Learning and Business Systems
June 2019 Quarter Update
NOTE: All gifts received by the Secretary are held in the Director, Audit's office and auctioned annually with all proceeds going to Stewart House.
28/Jun/19	Tim McCallum, Executive Director, School Performance	Voula Facas and Rose Nasso	Selection of Haigh chocolates for birthday.	$210.00	Birthday gift.	Accepted	Murat Dizdar, Deputy Secretary School Operations and Performance

 Education
Register of Gifts and Benefits
Date Received	Name and Position of Recipient	Name of Donor	Description of gift/benefit	Estimated Value $	Reasons for Acceptance	Decision on what will happen to gift/benefit	Name and Position of Approving Officer
24/Jun/19	Mark Scott, Secretary	The Griffith Review	Flights and accomodation.	$499.08	In conversation event with a focus on innovation and disruption hosted by Griffith University has relevance and application to the department's work on the future of education within the context of the education for a changing world priority.	Accepted	Mohua Mukherjee, Director Audit
8/Apr/19	Matthew Brown, R/Executive Director	Rural South and West Operational Directorate	Gift voucher upon retirement.	$100.00	Retirement gift.	Accepted	Murat Dizdar, Deputy Secretary School Operations and Performance
March 2019 Quarter Update
NOTE: All gifts received by the Secretary are held in the Director, Audit's office and auctioned annually with all proceeds going to Stewart House.
19/Mar/19	Leslie Loble, Deputy Secretary - External Affairs and Regulation	Minister Ellison	Dinner at Farrer Place Sydney	$60.00	The theme of dinner was "Women in Government". Appropriate for the Department to be represented at the dinner. Engaging and networking with peers.	Accepted.	Mark Scott, Secretary
4/Mar/19	Scott Thompson, Executive Director	Macquarie Government	Working dinner with Dr S Ravich Vice Chair of US Presidential Intelligence Advisory Board	$130.00	Current insights into US views and positions on cyber security and threat and collaborateive approaches between government and private sector and having this shared understanding with peers and colleagues at Federal and state level. Broaden networks at both levels with opporunity to discuss such issues as well as key contacts at the highest levels in the US should these assist any future challenges and threats. Provide support in the event of a potential or actual threat to the department or its systems.	Accepted.	Peter Riordan, Deputy Secretary, Corporate Services
2/Feb/19	Jane Simmons, Executive Director School Services	Taronga Conservation Society Australia	Dinner and tour of the Science Institute	$162.00	Taronga Zoo value their partnership with Department of Education. School Services education staff are based at the Zoo's Science Institute. Attendance demonstrates the Department's support for the Zoo, their education programs and the School Services staff.	Accepted.	Georgina Harrison, Deputy Secretary Educational Services