

Certificate II in Security Operations

Security officers needed!

Right now, there are many opportunities for licensed security officers in NSW.

You'll learn to keep people safe in places such as festivals, concerts and sporting events, shopping centres, NSW Government Hotel Quarantine Program, travel hubs or office towers and work sites — anywhere people come and go. You'll learn to provide first aid and manage emergency response. You'll also practice your skills with communication equipment.

You'll find work in many parts of NSW as the economy opens up and restrictions are lifted.

Training available

Up to 2000 free training places are available for the nationally accredited Certificate II in Security Operations, including the important unit "Comply with infection prevention and control policies and procedures".

Successful completion is a requirement for a Class 1 Security Licence, which will enable you to work as a Security Officer.

Where will it lead?

The security industry is growing and provides a range of exciting career possibilities. With experience and further training, you could find future work in roles such as:

- Close Personal protection / bodyguard
- guard dog handler
- armed guard
- security supervisor
- security operations manager
- security compliance manager
- security consultant or advisor
- security equipment specialist
- airport security officer
- private investigator
- security trainer.

Details

Course name: Certificate II in Security Operations

Course code: CPP20218

Course fee: Training is fully funded by the NSW Government as part of its NSW JobTrainer program, meaning you can save over $1000.

Where: Registered Training Organisations in metropolitan Sydney — 2000 places are available

Licence fee: $160 per year. Further information is available under the schedule of fees issued by NSW Police Force.

Eligibility

To be eligible for this free security officer training you need to be one of the following:

- aged between 16 and 24, including if you've just finished Year 12.
- receiving a Commonwealth Government welfare benefit
- unemployed, or
- expecting to become unemployed

You'll also need to be:

- living in NSW or working in NSW
- an Australian or New Zealand citizen, permanent resident or humanitarian visa holder
- no longer at school

You'll need to provide proof of your eligibility when you enrol. Some examples of proof include a letter, email, employment contract, payslip indicating JobKeeper payments, notice of redundancy or other documentation relating to your employment.

Note: you need to be over 18 to be eligible for a security licence.

For more information

- call Training Services NSW on 13 28 11
- security and defence training opportunities are available on the Department of Education website
- to access support from a skills brokers visit the Training Services NSW website.

