

Barranggirra

Skilling for Employment Initiative

Barranggirra is from the Wiradjuri language and means “to fly or to arise”

Barranggirra is funded by the NSW Government and provides end to end support for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander learners through culturally appropriate mentoring to ensure successful retention and completion of training and improved post-training employment outcomes.

Barranggirra achieves the following objectives for Aboriginal people:

- Increased access, retention and completion of vocational education and training.
- Aspiration and expectation of career pathways.
- Improved post-training outcomes.
- Increased placement in meaningful and sustainable employment.
- Greater confidence in making decisions that maximise training and employment experiences and outcomes.

Service Areas

The service areas for the delivery of the Barranggirra Initiative are based on the Training Services NSW regions as outlined below, and any other areas approved by the Department.
