NSW Training Awards 2025

Regional Prospectus

Why partner with the Regional NSW Training Awards?

The Regional Training Awards are designed to reward and promote vocational education and training excellence in the region, particularly through VET courses, apprenticeships and traineeships.

With the growing importance of vocational and educational training enhancing the region's prosperity, the Awards play a critical role in the economic landscape by encouraging and celebrating excellence in skills development. Organisations that participate as partners in the Awards are recognised as leading supporters, championing VET in NSW.

About Training Services

We are responsible for government funded VET and the regulation of Apprenticeships and Traineeships in NSW.

As a branch of the NSW Department of Education, we proactively collaborate with industry and education partners to develop skilled people to meet current and future workforce needs. The initiatives we implement include Smart and Skilled, Apprenticeships and Traineeships, Work Force Development, 1000 NSW Public Sector Apprentices and Trainees Program, Adult and Community Education and Aboriginal Initiatives.

NSW Department of Education supports the delivery of a skilled and employable workforce for NSW through post-school vocational education and training, as well as higher education.
