Daisy's First Day

Join Daisy on her first day at school.
Who will she meet?
What will she learn?
And will she have fun?

Today was Daisy's first day at Big School. She was rather nervous and her tummy was full of butterflies. Daisy wasn't quite sure what to think about school.

Mum gave her a big, squishy, cuddly hug – the best kind of hug.

Daisy could see all the colours of the rainbow. She thought it looked like a bright and happy place.

Daisy met her new friends. It was their first day too.

Daisy was having lots of fun.

Together, they sang and clapped and stomped.

Daisy was having lots and lots of fun.

Daisy pulled on her smock and painted a picture of her family.

Just then, a kookaburra flew across the sky. He was ringing a bell and laughing.

Daisy gobbled up her gum leaves. Spike licked and slurped up his ants.

So they did. Daisy was having lots and lots and lots of fun.

After lunch, the class played games with numbers. Daisy counted one teddy bear, two flowers, three pebbles, four pencils and five books.

She read them a book about a dog who ate his dinner with a fork and a spoon. Daisy was having lots and lots and lots and lots of fun.

"I'm going to read you a most wonderful story," said Miss Wattle.

All at once it was home time. Daisy was filled to the brim with all the fun she'd had at school. Mum was waiting for her outside the classroom. She pulled Daisy in for a big, squishy, cuddly hug.

"Now tell me Daisy, did you have fun?"

"I had lots and lots and lots and lots of fun!" said Daisy.

"Well, that's a lot of fun," said Mum.

And it certainly was!
