

NSW Training Awards 2022

Awards process for individual award categories

What happens after you apply?

1

Your entry will be assessed by your (allocated) Training Awards region based on the criteria. If your application is successful, you will be invited for an interview within your region

2

If you are successful and selected as a regional finalist for your award category, you will be invited to the NSW Training Awards regional event in June where the winner of your category will be announced.

3

If you are announced as the regional winner of your category, you will progress to the next stage where you will represent your region and be invited for a state interview (mid July) in Sydney.

4

The NSW Training Awards team will advise of the outcome of the interview by phone or letter.

5

If you are successful and selected as a state finalist, you will be invited to attend the prestigious NSW Training Awards event in September.

6

If you are announced as the winner of your category, you will progress to represent NSW at the Australian Training Awards in November for 'Finalist Week' for a final interview. All national finalists are invited to the presentation dinner during 'finalist week' where the winner will be announced.

Flights and accommodation will be covered by the Australian Training Awards.

(please note that the VET in Schools Student award does not progress to the National Level, this is a NSW only category)

A week before the Australian Training Awards, you will be also be invited to the best professional development week, in preparation for the Australian Training Awards.
