

Permission to use student Artwork

Dear Parent/guardian,

Congratulations on entering your child's Artwork for consideration in this competition. The Aboriginal Education and Communities directorate and NSW Department of Education ('the department') requests your permission to allow the department to use your child's Artwork in promotional and publicity materials both for the competition, and broader uses related to the promotion of Aboriginal education and public education generally.

Use of Artwork

The department would like permission to copy, reproduce, edit, adapt and communicate Your child's Artwork in printed and electronic form, including using the Artwork for the following;

- School purposes, including language and teaching resources developed for 'Aboriginal Language and Culture Nests'
- Department of Education publications such as its Annual Report, school newsletters, magazine articles and promotional material and merchandise
- Public websites of the Department of Education including the Aboriginal Education sites, Arts sites and school websites, blogs and wikis
- The Department of Education intranet (staff only) site
- Official department and school social media accounts on networks such as YouTube, Facebook and VivaEngage (formerly Yammer) and X (formerly Twitter)
- Public media including websites, broadcasts and publications showcasing student achievements.
- Other public media, websites and promotional material from partner agencies, such as NSW Aboriginal Education Consultative Group Inc. (NSW AECG), NSW Aboriginal Languages Trust (NSW ALT).

We note that the department will not commercially exploit the Artwork (for example, by providing it to others for a fee).

Personal Information

Your child will be identified as creator of the Artwork by their first name only and the publications may also reference their age, year level or school.

Parents/guardians should be aware that when information is published on public websites and social media channels, it can be discoverable online for a number of years, if not permanently. Search engines may also cache or retain copies of published information. Published information can also be linked to by third parties.

If you agree to permit the department to use the Work in this manner, please complete the permission slip below and attach to the online entry form with your artwork submission.
