Bluey Theme Song

(classroom arrangement)

by Joff Bush

Presto

The musical score is arranged in a system of staves. The top section includes Melody, Keyboard, Guitar, Bass part, and Bass Guitar. The bottom section includes Drum Set, Shaker, Tambourine, Claps 1, and Claps 2. The score is in 4/4 time, with a 5/4 section starting at the end of the first system. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The guitar part includes chord diagrams for E and A(sus2). The drum set part includes a snare drum with a 'x' mark above it. The claps part includes two different clap patterns. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Piano

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords in a 2/2 time signature, starting with a whole note chord and followed by a half note chord. The left hand plays a simple bass line with quarter notes.

5 A Naz:

I do not be-lieve we are born e-vil. Who-e-ver did this is in pain and I'm sor-ry some-one tore a hole in your heart. If I could meet you, I would hold you, so you could feel love. I would kiss each of your eye-lids,

The first vocal line starts at measure 5. It features a melody with eighth and quarter notes, including a triplet of eighth notes. The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

The second vocal line starts at measure 12. The melody continues with eighth and quarter notes, including another triplet. The piano accompaniment remains consistent with the previous section.

be-fore slow-ly re-mov-ing each of them with toe-nail clip-pers. Now can you see what you're do-ing to us?

The third vocal line starts at measure 19. The melody features a triplet of eighth notes. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line.

24

Now that you know what love feels like do you un-der-stand what you've des-troyed? Be-cause piece of TRASHHHHH

You stole my husband and now you're gonna pay the price for it, you

The final vocal line starts at measure 24. The melody includes a triplet of eighth notes and ends with a double bar line. The piano accompaniment concludes with a final chord and bass line.
