

Multifaith inclusive schools checklist 2025

	The religious diversity of our school community is known, recognised and valued	✓
	Significant religious events of our school community are acknowledged and celebrated	✓
	Students and staff have access to appropriate spaces and flexible arrangements to pray and conduct activity of a religious nature	✓
	Religious dietary requirements are catered for in the school canteen and at school events	✓
	Religious clothing is incorporated into the school uniform where possible	✓
	There are equal opportunities for students to have a say in their school and learning	✓
	Professional learning resources and opportunities to strengthen student inclusion are utilised by staff	✓
	Students are provided with opportunities to foster understanding about, and respect for, a variety of religions and spiritual beliefs	✓
	Students and staff know how to report religious intolerance and are encouraged to do so	✓
	Reports of religious intolerance are responded to immediately and appropriately, and addressed satisfactorily	✓
	School leaders model respect for religious diversity within the school community	✓
	Open and safe conversations about religion are fostered in the school environment	✓
	There is a commitment to build and strengthen collaborative and constructive relationships with local religious leaders and communities	✓
	The school community is informed about school activities that may impact on their religious beliefs and/or practices	✓
	Current information about approved Special Religious Education providers and how classes are organised is available	✓
	Religious inclusivity is part of the School Improvement Plan	✓