

TTS School Supplies for Primary, Secondary and Early Years.

Disclaimer: ASEPA (Australian Special Education Principals Association) have joined together with UK-based nasen (National Association for Special Educational Needs) to work in partnership to crowd-source free resources that may be useful in supporting children with complex and/or additional learning needs.

Who is this resource for?

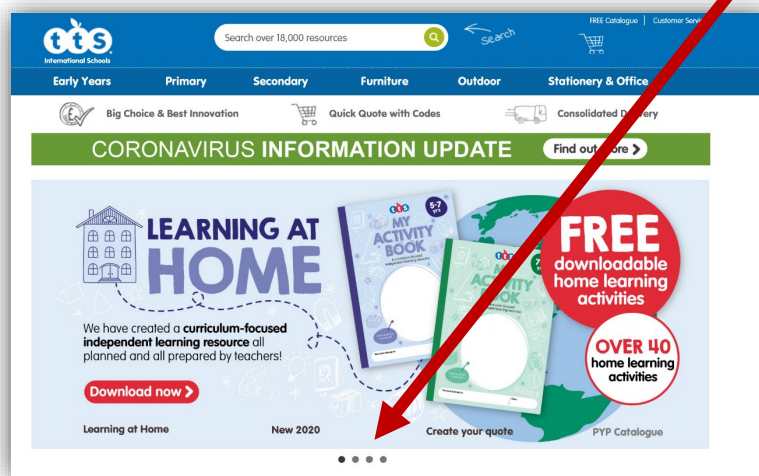

- Teaching and learning resource

This website is mainly a site for buying teaching and learning supplies and resources.

However, there is a learning from home download that is a resource for home schooling.

Setting up

1. Access TTS School Supplies here or via the following link <https://www.tts-international.com/>
2. If this Learning from Home pop up is not showing, then click on the four dots until you see the learning from home downloadable learning activities.

3. Click on the Download now button and it will take you to a choice of three different activity books.

With a combination of independent and collaborative learning activities, the home learning books provide a great opportunity for parents to learn with their children.

Early Years Activity Book Age 5-7 Activity Book Age 7-11 Activity Book

Download the one that is most suited to your child's needs.

How can my child use this resource?

As parents of students who may have additional learning and support needs or disabilities, you may need some help to make all of this technology work for your child. Below is a link to some 'How to Videos' to support parents with making it easier to work online.

The screen shot shows what you will see when you click on the link.

Tips for parents and carers

This resource is a PDF document that you can print for your student to fill in. It includes activities in literacy, mathematics, science, P.E., computer, geography, history, art and design, music, language and mindfulness.

This is a UK company so the resources reflect this.
