

What do stingless bees look like?

Stingless bees are a type of insect. Insects always have 6 legs, 3 segments in their bodies, an exoskeleton and antennae.

Stingless bees also have pollen baskets on their legs which are used to carry pollen and resin back to their hives.

Using the diagram below, label the main parts of a stingless bee.

Can you think of any other labels?

