

Medical certificate

The Assisted School Travel Program provides transport assistance for eligible students between their permanent residence and school, where parents can demonstrate they are unable to provide or arrange transport for students either fully or in part. This medical certificate is to be completed by the family's medical practitioner where a student's parent is seeking access to travel assistance for a student due to the parent's inability to provide or arrange transport for the student to attend school. Any fee charged for the examination is to be paid for by the applicant (parent).

Parents are to email this completed certificate to parent.astp@det.nsw.edu.au.
