

KURRI KURRI HIGH SCHOOL

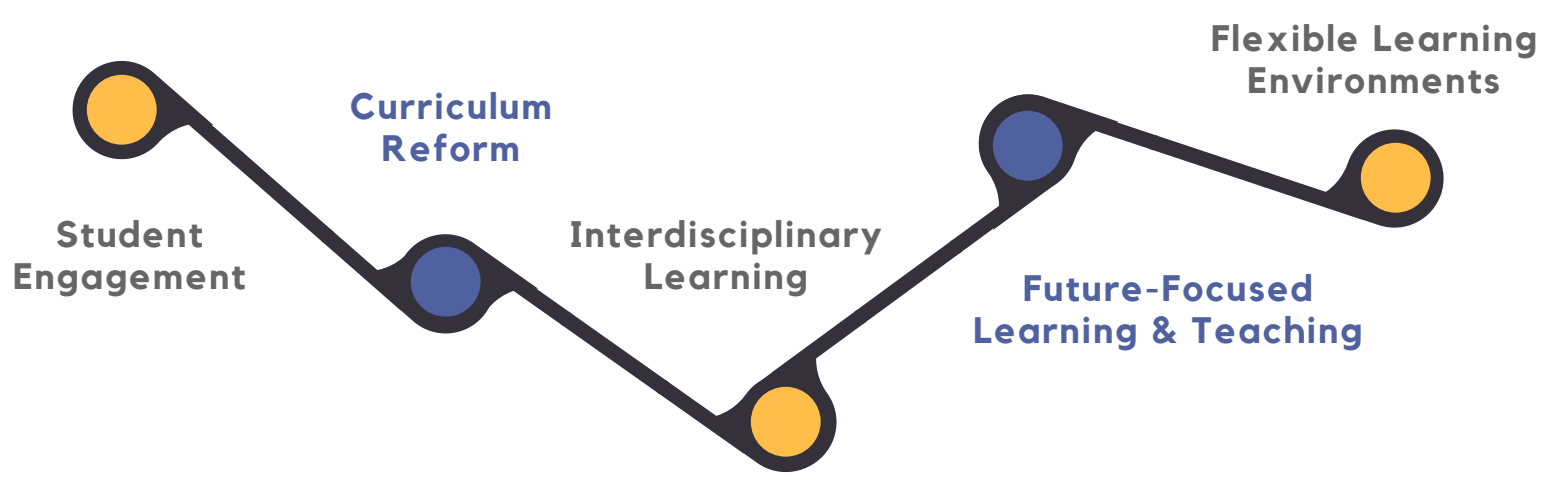

PROJECT NEST

JOURNEY SUMMARY

At Kurri Kurri High School we have reformed our curriculum structure. We are using a learning hub model and project based learning in Year 7. At present, students are undertaking three core interdisciplinary courses in groups of 60 students working in flexible learning environments with three teachers assigned to each group.

JOURNEY FOCUS AREAS

MILESTONES

2016

- Professional learning 3 day conference for teachers who would be teaching year 7 in 2017
- Accessed expert planning and support resources from within and beyond school.
- Redesign of learning and flexible learning environments
- Redevelopment of class structures

- Reform curriculum structure
- Learning hubs developed
- Project-based approached learning adopted
- Instructional leadership on innovative technology and effective literacy applications
- Refining teaching practices
- Student reflection and demonstration of learning

2017

POSITIVE IMPACTS

MAIN CHALLENGES & SOLUTIONS

The transitions & different group structures proved challenging. Our solutions were:

