

Consent to contact the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)

Please complete this form in English to give consent for the NSW Department of Education to talk to the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) (or another organisation representing the NDIS - either an NDIS Local Area Coordinator or NDIS Early Childhood Partner) on your behalf.

This consent form allows nominated officers from the NSW Department of Education (Department) to talk directly with the NDIA or representative organisation, or to share information with the NDIS or representative organisation, on NDIS-related matters directly affecting your child. This includes information relating to your child's access to the NDIS, your child's NDIS plan, reviews to your child's NDIS plan and supports and services your child receives through the NDIS. This consent will apply only to officers from the Department listed at the end of this consent form.
